AREAS OF RESEARCH INTERESTS:

Normative Ethics, Kantian Ethics, Utilitarianism, Applied Ethics (especially Bioethics, Business Ethics, Ethics of War, Computer Ethics,), Philosophy of Law, Political Philosophy, International Ethics.

TEACHING AND LECTURING

At Belgrade University I developed and held the following courses: "Ethics", "Introduction to Ethics", "Normative Ethics", "Kantian Practical Philosophy", "Utilitarianism", "History of Ethics", "Applied Ethics", "Bioethics" "Meta-ethics". Mentor of over twenty PhD and MA theses and, on a regular basis, of many BAs. Many public lectures on different topics at various towns and places.

At PSU, Portland, OR, I developed a new course in "Computer Ethics", and during three years of my stay there, and subsequently in Summer Sessions thereafter, I have taught the following courses: "Applied Ethics", "Kant" (two different courses, "Kant's Practical Philosophy" and, "Kant's Theoretical Philosophy"), "19th Century Philosophy", "Business Ethics", "Elementary Ethics", "Political Morality, War, and Pacifism", "Morality of Punishment", "Social and Political Philosophy", and "Ethics of War". I had also been engaged in advising Honor students, in a Reading conference, and in writing several recommendation letters for various purposes (for applying to Graduate or Law Schools and/or for applying for a job). Also at the PSU: Lectures within Tour the World at Home This Summer, Free Lecture Series: "Non-Culpable Ignorance and Just War Theory" (July 25, 2007), "World Governance: Is It Possible, Do We Need It, What Does It (All) Mean?" (July 29, 2008), "Communities and Boundaries in Cyber Territories" (August 3, 2011); (with World Affairs Council of Oregon) "The Ethics of War and Ethics in War", August 1, 2012.
